& OTHER CLASSIFIED ADS.

THE TOPEKA STATE JOURNAL guarantees, every day it is printed, to give a local circulation more than double that of any other paper, and by far more than all other papers combined. This makes this paper the cheapest, as well as the best daily advertising medium in Topeka, the classified advertisements being costed but or 20 cents a line for 2 weeks; 50 cents by the month. City circulation exceeds 5,000—total circulation over 10,000.

FIVE CENTS A LINE,

Call and see any afternoon between 4 and 5, the handsomest, fastest, most perfect piece of printing machinery in Kansas—Webb's perfecting press, which prints from two to three complete 8-page papers a second.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FREE.

Are you in need of work? If so, you are at liberty to use these columns for assistance in that direction. While this notice appears the STATE JOURNAL will publish free on Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday, for Topeka or Kansas people, all notices of "Situations Wanted," not exceeding five lines, or thirty-five words, in length. Provided that all advertisements of this nature are placed in the paper on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, all advertising of this class being in by ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

No advertisements of this nature to be started except on Saturdays and Wednesdays. No obligation is incurred on the part of the advertiser. No worthy and necessary notices or women hesitate to take advantage of this offer. No one in business or having employment is expected to take advantage of it, but all others invited to avail themselves freely.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

The Republicans of Shawnee county will hold a primary election under the Australian ballot system on Saturday, the 16th day of June, 1891, between the hours of 11 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. in the city, and between the hours of 2 o'clock p. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. in the country, in accordance with the law governing primary elections and the Australian ballot, so far as modified by the county central committee, as herein provided, to select candidates for the following county offices: County attorney, probate judge, clerk of the district court and superintendent of public instruction.

The voters shall express a preference for or against the Australian system of primaries. The voters will also elect central committee members from the various wards and precincts. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast at said primary election for the respective offices named, will be declared the nominee for said offices, to be voted for at the coming November election.

The supervisors hereinafter named will take charge of the polls and make their returns to the secretary immediately after the counting of the ballots, with a certified polling sheet, showing the names of persons receiving votes and the number of votes received by each, together with the number of ballots cast at said election, and the defective and unused ballots for said precinct.

The following is the name and location of each voting precinct, with the name of the supervisor of elections for such precinct:

Fifth Ward—West of center line of Polk street, Hick's row, Sixth and Western avenue, C. A. Feltow.

Sixth Ward—East of center line of Quincy street, Kesside's building, Dennis Hope.

Seventh Ward—West of center line of Quincy street, Lull's hall, J. M. Harr.

The supervisors will have charge of the voting precincts and under their direction the election officers and two clerks for their respective precincts.

None but known Republicans shall vote at said election.

The clerks of election boards are instructed and required to record the name and residence of each voter.

Any voter who cannot read, English or is disabled, shall, upon request, be assisted by two election officers, appointed for that purpose who will mark his ballot as directed by the voter. No intoxicated person shall be entitled to assistance in marking his ballot.

In the absence of guard rails, the judges of elections shall mark the imaginary rail with chalk or other mark, and shall prevent voters from approaching the booth except in voting, the same as required under the general election law of this state.

A judge of election shall be designated to his initials on each ballot as a girl and he's engaged to her.—Somerville Journal.

No man ever complains that a woman talks too much when she's a girl and he's engaged to her.—Somerville Journal.

Help.

The waters of Back bay broke into myriad ripples at the magic touch of the breeze, and the cranberries on Cape Cod glinted in the sunlight.

"I fear," the maiden mused, "I do not understand myself."

The sailor who had come from afar to seek her hand smiled.

"Permit me," he remarked, "to assist you."

Saying which he produced from his portmanteau a dictionary of the English language in 80 volumes.—Truth.

A Mother's Natural Pride.

"Look here, now," exclaimed the old hen to her brood, "if I catch any of you playing with any of those artificial brats next door, I'll wring your necks for you. I've got some pride, I have, and I don't ever want to be humiliated by seeing a child of mine hobnobbing with the offspring of a wooden-legged incubator."—Pearson's Weekly.

A New Name For Them.

Strawber—You look as though you had set up late last night.

Singler—I did. And one of the fairest flowers of womanhood promised to be mine.

Strawber—I see. And so those rings under your eyes are engagement rings.—New York Herald.

Real Horrid.

"That horrid Mrs. Dodge! I'll never speak to her again if I can help it."

He—What did she do?

"I told her I thought my last pictures made me look much younger than I am, and she said, 'Yes; no one would take you for more than 35.'"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Plain Tale.

"Where shall I put this patent medicine advertisement?"

"Under the poetry."

"What's that for?"

"Read the poem, get sick, take the medicine—all serene. Saw the ad in our paper!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Industry.

"Why don't you work for your living?" said the blunt young man.

"Work for me living!" exclaimed Charles. "Gee! heavens! Don't I! Fat-haw is so careless I have to write him at least twice a week for spending money."—Washington Star.

How He Got Even.

Wool—The woman ahead of me at the play had on a hat as big as a kite, but it didn't bother me very often.

Van Pelt—What did you do?

Wool—Every time it hid my view I gave her husband's silk dicer a kick.—New York Herald.

Not Yet Ready to Croak.

Gone.

"Mamma."

Fretfully the golden head tossed upon the pillow. Vainly the great, bearded man sought to soothe the child to slumber.

"Mamma."

The man sat silent in the darkness, and a tear crept down his cheek.

"Mamma."

He rose and gazed from the window into the dimly lighted street. The house seemed oppressively silent.

"Mamma."

"Child, child!"

He was bending low over the bed now. "don't make this society racket any worse than necessary."

Glancing at his watch, he estimated with a sigh that the dance programme had probably proceeded no further than the York.—Detroit Tribune.

Satisfactory Evidence.
